DECLARATION

PETITIONS OFFICE

Applicants petition for the revival of this application without payment of a fee. The basis for this request is that after receipt of a final rejection and advisory action, the application was appealed June 26, 2000 with the payment of the required fee. An Appeal Brief was filed timely with an authorization to charge the fee that is required to accompany the filing of the brief. Despite these proper actions, Applicants' attorney received a Notice of Abandonment for failure to file the proper fee.

Applicants attorney telephoned the clerk in the Group handling this case and explained that he had transmitted and authorized the appropriate fees. He had several conversations with her and even telefaxed a copy of the cancelled check to the clerk to verify that the fees had been paid.

As far as I know, the clerk in question took no action on this matter in responding to me and the application remains abandoned.

In the event, based upon this petition, the abandonment in the instant case is found to be unintentional instead of unavoidable, an authorization to charge my credit card account accompanies this petition.

Respectfully Submitted,

Thomas A. Beck
